EXPERIENCE	Hiwave Co., Ltd. Product Designer Jan. 2022 – Aug. 2025	Led pattern design for floor mats and household goods sold on Taobao and Tmall, synthesizing qualitative research and trend analysis into products that achieved average monthly sales of over 200 units . Developed a new pattern library categorized by material and craft to optimize cross-functional production. Partnered with high-end customers to deliver tailored solutions and scale existing product collections.
	Tianxiahuacang Co., Ltd. Product Designer Aug. 2021 – Dec. 2021	Framed home decor as an interactive bridge between objects and living spaces.
PROJECTS	Hydrated Cat UI, Illustration, Prototyping Personal Project · iOS, Android	A gamification hydration tracking app featuring a friendly cat companion that makes drinking water engaging, addressing the problem that logging water feels like a chore and generic reminders get ignored. Designed one-tap logging , an emotionally responsive Cat companion, personalised hydration reminders and monthly progress tracking, and rebuilt onboarding around data transparency to address users' hesitation about sharing biological data.
	FLUX Concept, UI, UX, Animation, Prototyping FigBuild 2025 Hackathon · AI Project · Group Project · iOS, Android, Wearable	A tracking application exploring human chronoception , helping users understand and manage their flow states through a companion wearable device. Designed for young professionals aged 22–35, particularly knowledge workers with ADHD who lose 51% of their work time to distraction, the system pairs a minimalist wristband with an intelligent app that translates physiological data into a real-time cognitive state signal.
