THE PUBLIC IZAKAYA

THE PUBLIC IZAKAYA is a fusion restaurant located in the Lower Nob Hill area of San Francisco. It aims to be "the new generation izakaya". It takes the Japanese pub-style dining format and reimagines it through a distinctly American lens.

TYPE: Izakaya/ Sushi Bar/ Ramen
Price Range: $30-50
Hours: 4:30pm - 2am
Yelp Rating: 4.2 stars/77 reviews

Pros: It's high-concept and genre-oriented. Late-night vibe, unique identity, fresh and craft dishes, most popular place in SF.

Cons: The restaurant does not have a logo, no digital menu(only printed menu without any design), no style guide, no typography, no official website( NO BRAND VOICE. Guests discover this only after they walk through the door.

30 words to describe it

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cool | Vibrant | Intimate | Raw |
| Iconic | Communal | 2000s | Osaka |
| Late-night | Gritty | Soulful | Temple |
| Craft | Umami | Crisp | Savory |
| Vintage | Artisanal | Niche | Vibrant |
| Decorative | Smoky | Bold | Hand-pressed |
| Charmed | Street-inspired | Local | Fun |

3 main words

Craft
It's a good place for fun, without any boundary.

Vibrant
where traditional Japanese art elements meet the modern, transient energy of city nightlife.

Craft
fresh food and hand-pressed drinks, high quality with reasonable price.

MOODBOARD

PERMANENT MARKER IS HEADING
Gabarito is paragraph

LOGO VIBRANTS